Children's fancy footwork

TINY tots put their best foot forward to take part in a sponsored fancy dress toddle to raise funds for their Haverhill children's centre.

A total of 24 youngsters dressed in outfits ranging from Shrek to Spiderman and several fairies took part in the event at the Puddlebrook field next to the Cartwheels Children's Centre in Greenfields Way.

They were aged from 11 years old to just nine months – little Anna-Marie Edwards, who was pushed in her buggy.

Those taking part were from the baby and toddler group at the centre and nursery pupils and older children from the holiday club.

Sandra Bird, manager at the centre, said: "They loved it. They all joined in the fancy dress and the staff all dressed up too, which made it even more fun.

"They must have completed about one and a half miles and then they stayed on the play equipment for a while.

"They were raising money for new toys and equipment. We've got £90 already and hopefully more will come in. They did very well."

Dying wish brings in funds to help others

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A DYING MAN'S wish that donations should be made in his memory to the Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal has been fulfilled with more than £300 added to the fund.

Mike Thomas was 70 when he died from lung cancer in May, only weeks after being diagnosed with the disease and being told that his conditional was terminal. He had suffered no symptoms, other than some breathlessness, and news of his illness came as a terrible shock to him and his wife Margaret.

The couple moved from Hampshire to Lavender Field in Haverhill in 2002 when they retired, to be nearer their daughter at Steeple Bumpstead and close to Stansted airport, to visit the apartment they had bought in Gozo.

It was while visiting Gozo that Mr Thomas started to feel breathless and believed he was suffering from hay fever. On his return he visited his doctor and was sent to Addenbrooke's Hospital for an x-ray.

■ SUDDEN . . . Mike Thomas, who died less than two months after being diagnosed with lung cancer.

Mrs Thomas said: "We did not know he had cancer until April 11 and he died just five to six weeks later. He was under the care of the hospice and Trevor Farrington came to see me before he ever met Mike to arrange for everything to be here when he came out of hospital.

"He had everything provided for him here from oxygen to a fully adjustable hospital bed.

"He was very grateful and when he died there were two nurses, and a paramedic there, as well as me and my daughter.

"He was not in any pain or even discomfort until right at the end. He was a committed Christian and his faith helped him very much and it has helped me too. He was not afraid of dying and said 'let me go, don't fight for me.'

"He received very good support from the hospice and it was his wish that donations in his memory should be to the Hospice at Home Appeal, so that other people could have the same help from the hospice that he did."

The Weekly News appeal to raise £40,000 for the Hospice to provide services to patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes, rather than having to travel to Bury St Edmunds, has received great support, but still needs more cash pledges to reach its target.

Let us know of your fundraising plans by ringing (01440) 703891 or e-mail editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

How can you help us hit the £40,000 target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help - so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause? A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842. An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

"It is suitable for all the family and we hope to get others to join us."

The club meets at St Mary's Church each Monday evening from 6.30pm to 7.30pm at a cost of £1.50 per session, with all the cash going to church funds. There is also an optional exercise class held at 7.30pm which slimmers can join.

Police seek robbers in assault

POLICE have issued an E-fit likeness of a man they want to trace following a night time robbery at Haverhill.

Two men called at the door of a flat in Pentlow Hawke Close, Haverhill, at around 11.30pm on Friday, August 1, and assaulted the male occupant when he opened it.

They forced their way into the property and threatened the other occupants, before taking items including cash and mobile phones. The offenders then left in a black BMW.

The first offender is described as male, white, in his 20s, of slim build with a pointed nose and pock marked skin. He was wearing a bandana across his face, a black hooded jacket with the hood up, black tracksuit bottoms and white trainers, and spoke with a London accent.

An E-fit image has been issued of the second offender, who is described as male, Asian, in his 20s, with short dark hair and a chubby face. He wore a black hooded top with the hood up, black tracksuit bottoms and white trainers, and spoke with a London accent.

Call Pc Paul Gant at Haverhill CID on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 with any information.

■ RAISING THE FLAG ... officials, volunteers and visitors celebrate at East Town Park after the park earned the Green Flag Award.

Picture: Keith Jones 503806.

Delighted rangers fly the green flag at town park

RANGERS celebrated with councillors this week as a green flag flew over their town park for the first time. East Town Park at Coupsals Road, Haverhill, has been recognised as one of the best green spaces in the country by winning its first coveted Green Flag Award from the Civic Trust.

The flags are awarded to parks and green spaces in England and Wales that reach the high criteria required, which looks at aspects such as the community involvement and health and safety. The award can only be held for a year, which means that East Town Park has to sustain the standard to receive it again next year. Lynsey Alexander, portfolio holder for culture and sport for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, which manages the park, said: "We are very proud to receive this national award. East Town Park is an attractive area where people can relax and enjoy the outdoors. The judges were impressed with the support we receive from volunteers, who have helped us to make many landscape and habitat improvements, for the benefit of the whole community." The 30-acre park at the edge of the town is the key to a centre of footpaths which extend around Haverhill and along the old railway track. It is also a gateway to the wider countryside, with its links to other leisure attraction, including a six-mile circular route and the Stour Valley Path.

Police safety appeal after woman grabbed

A WOMEN was attacked while out walking at the weekend.

The incident occurred at Castle Walk at around 9.20pm on Sunday when a man grabbed her from behind as she walked near Castle Avenue. She screamed, struggled free and ran away.

The man is described as white, in his early 20s, around 5ft 7in tall, of medium build with short hair, a small nose and big lips. He was of a scruffy appearance and was wearing a navy hooded top and white trainers.

Police want to hear from anyone with information about the assault, as well as two people the victim passed on foot – a young female with a girl aged around three on Beech Grove, and a man of large build, wearing a T-shirt and jogging bottoms and walking a black Labrador near Castle Manor School.

The attack comes just weeks after a 12-year-old girl was grabbed from behind, pulled into the bushes and subjected to a serious sexual assault near the town's railway walk. The attack occurred on July 24.

On July 30, a man exposed himself while walking along the footpath by the new cinema and car park, on Ehring-shausen Way towards the town centre at around 4.30pm.

Police have rejected suggestions that a single sex pest is at work and are not linking the incidents.

Following the latest report, police were quick to stress that the town is still a "very safe" place to live, but have advised women to stick together when they are out and to let others know of their plans.

Inspector Andy Smith, Haverhill

sector commander, said: "Officers are carrying out enquiries in respect of all the incidents. If anyone has any information about any of these incidents we would urge them to contact us.

"There has been an increased police presence in Haverhill since the serious sexual assault last month, and this is continuing. People are continuing to call into the station and speak to officers on patrol about this crime, and we would like to thank them for their help.

"If anyone sees any suspicious activity or persons, they should call police immediately and make a note of descriptions of people and vehicles.

"We would encourage anyone with any concerns about issues in their community to contact their local Safer Neighbourhood Team, through their website or at the police station, there are also regular sessions held at Havebury and the Clements Resource Centre.

"Whilst Suffolk remains a safe place, we would always encourage people to stick together when out, and to let others know of your whereabouts and plans.

"Further personal safety advice can be obtained from your local crime reduction officer on (01473) 613500 or at www.suffolk.police.uk"

Information about any of the incidents can be given to Pc Andrew Green on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

More come forward in hunt for attacker

POLICE are renewing their appeal for information to help find a man who sexually assaulted a 12-year-old girl in Haverhill.

The girl was seriously sexually assaulted in broad daylight on Thursday, July 24, by a man who grabbed her from behind and pulled her into the bushes close to the town's old Railway Walk. She was with another 12-year-old girl, who was also grabbed, but managed to escape and run away.

Acting Detective Inspector Trevor Prior, from Suffolk police's major Investigation Team, said their appeal had been successful.

He said: "Last week we appealed for several people that the two girls saw as they walked along the path that afternoon to come forward. "I'd like to thank to the media for their assistance with this appeal, as we have now spoken to the woman walking her dog and the female with a baby buggy.

"However, we still need to trace some other people the girls passed. Firstly, two children: a boy riding a red bike and a girl on a pink bike with stabilisers. They were with a woman with brown, straight shoulder length hair, of slim build, she was possibly also on a bike.

"Secondly, three teenage boys aged 14-15 years old, casually dressed in jeans and trainers. One of these males had spiky brown hair and was wearing a dark blue hooded top and trainers.

"If you are one of these people, please get in touch. And if you're not one of these people, but you were using the old railway line between 1pm and 2.30pm that afternoon and you haven't yet spoken to a police officer, I would urge you to call us."

The attacker is described as a white male, in his 20s or 30s, 6ft tall and of slim to medium build, with short dark hair and was wearing sunglasses, blue jeans, a white T-shirt and trainers.

Anyone with any information about this incident should call Suffolk Police on (01473) 613500 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

■ MOVING ON . . . Stuart and Paula Ashman, who are leaving Haverhill after eight years.

Picture: Richard Patterson 499388.

New challenge for couple

A SALVATION Army Captain and his wife are moving on after making quite a mark during their eight years in Haverhill.

Stuart and Paula Ashman arrived in the town in May 2000, after spending the previous two years in Stranraer, West Scotland.

During their time in the town they have seen some exciting developments, especially the opening of the Clements shop and resource centre, new community initiatives and a revamp of the Chantry Road premises.

Stuart said: "Our time at Haverhill has been a wonderful time of making new friends, and being in a place that we have really enjoyed and have learnt to call home."

"The Haverhill people have been kind to us, and we have aimed to be kind to them. We have tried to nurture a sense of unity, togetherness and family within our congregation, and within the community at large, trying to get involved in different aspects of Haverhill life.

"We have tried to share something of ourselves in all that we do. We have had a wonderful time in Haverhill and a large chunk of our heart will remain here."

"We thank all those people that we have come into contact with over our time here, and those people that we gratefully call friends."

The Ashmans are going to King's Lynn. Their successor, Captain Jonathan Wylie, arrives later this month.

Mayor to open floral art show

FLORAL arrangements of the highest calibre will be on show this weekend when battle commences at Haverhill and District Flower Club's annual floral art competition.

Town mayor Cllr Les Ager will officially open the show at 12.30pm at Haverhill Arts Centre, accompanied by St Edmundsbury mayor Robert Cockle.

The club, which celebrates its 45th anniversary this year, is hosting its fourth competition and the second at the arts centre.

The main auditorium will be festooned with 60 exhibits and entry to the public is free, from 1-5pm on Saturday and 10am-4pm on Sunday.

There will be six classes, with a record number of 26 exhibitors from as far afield as Cambridge, Luton, Mildenhall, Saffron Walden and Ipswich.

This year the club will be using new staging and drapes bought with a generous contribution from Suffolk county councillor Tim Marks from his Locality Fund.

The judge once again will be Judy Wynn, an accredited judge of the National Association of Flower Arrangement Societies.

Road closed for concerts

A MAJOR road will be closed while residents enjoy some free musical entertainment.

Camps Road (Peas Hill) in Haverhill will be closed during the evenings this Saturday, and Saturday, August 23, to create space for outdoor music events on the market square.

The Brotherhood of Man will be performing this Saturday, and on August 23 two tribute bands, the Scizzor Sisters and So 80s, will be entertaining the crowds, from 8pm.

Camps Road (Peas Hill) will be closed from its junction with Mill Road to its junction with Queen Street-High Street between 7pm and 11.30pm on both Saturday evenings.

Mayor's musical birthday gift to town

CHARITIES will benefit to the tune of more than £500 from two events organised to help celebrate town mayor Les Ager's birthday.

Cllr Ager, who has just turned 70, was joined by nine other mayors for an event at Haverhill Arts Centre, with music provided by The Classic String Quartet, and his grandson Adam Chinery. As well as the first citizens of Bury St Edmunds, Thetford, Woodbridge, Ipswich, Huntingdon, Saffron Walden and Halstead, Cllr Ager was joined by two musicians Bruno Kock and Klaus Jung from Werdorf, which is near to Haverhill's

German twin town Ehringshausen. The following evening more than 50 musicians joined Cllr Ager, who is also the musical director of the Haverhill Silver Band, and his son Mark, as they jointly conducted a brass concert in the town's Market Square. Past Silver Band members travelled back to attend, including one who had not been back to the town for 30 years. Gramplan Foods donated a tea party for the players and their guests and collections at both events raised a grand total of £560 for the mayor's charity fund, which will be distributed to local good causes at the end of the year. Cllr Ager said: "Both events were very successful and there was a lovely atmosphere on the Market Square. "We had very good support from visiting players and from mayors who attended on the Friday night."

Chief's vow to end carnage on A1307

A HIGHWAYS chief has vowed to stop the carnage on the A1307.

Cambridgeshire county councillor Matt Bradney, cabinet member for growth and infrastructure, met an MP, police chiefs and parish councillors this week.

But his actions over the coming months will be closely monitored by Cambridgeshire South East MP Jim Paice, who called the meeting to discuss a long-term strategy for the road.

It came under the spotlight due to a number of fatalities. The latest of these was the triple death crash which killed David Bocking, 43, and his two teenage sons Daniel and Stephen, in a head-on collision in July.

Cllr Bradney said: "One death is one too many but this road has taken too many lives and that's what I want to stop. We are looking at a range of measures including making the road a single carriageway."

BY Raymond Brown

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

He told Mr Paice and local district and parish councillors: "Finding a solution to accidents on the A1307 remains one of my top priorities."

The reassurance was given at a meeting at Shire Hall, Cambridge, where 25 councillors, traffic engineers, police and other interested parties discussed how best to address the road's dire accident record.

Cllr Bradney said: "It was a very positive meeting. What was interesting was that police said that out of 11 recent fatalities only one of them was down to speed while the others were caused by bad driving."

"Last month I announced a package of further improvements the county council will undertake, including fast-tracking a review of speed limits along the road, a new safety camera and a series of warning signs that tell motorists to take extra care along the road.

"These will be in place next month. We are also waiting to start work on a junction improvement at Cardinals Green where two teenagers died in separate accidents."

Mr Paice was broadly pleased with the meeting but said tempers did rise on occasion.

He said: "I think it went quite well. No-one thinks that this can solve the problems on the A1307 overnight but we did have a positive meeting."

"I know that Matt [Bradney] wants to work at making this road safer and I will be on his back to make sure it happens."

Mr Paice said short-term strategies, such as plans to reduce the speed limit from 60mph to 50mph on a stretch of the road and install a speed camera, are not good enough.

He wants 50mph limits on the entire stretch of road.

Chamber set for year of 'diverse' events

KATE Anstee has been appointed the new administrator and events co-ordinator at Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Ms Anstee, of the Time

Finder Agency, a member of the chamber, has recently taken over from Donna O'Brien and Elaine Carr. Ms Anstee said: "It is an honour to be offered this role. I am working on a programme of events for the next 12 months covering a diverse and relevant range of topics as well as offering members the opportunity to have some fun."

Would-be robber targeted toilets

The attempted robbery happened in Jubilee Walk, Haverhill between 5.25pm and 5.35pm on Thursday, August 7, when another man walked past and the woman told him she was being robbed.

This man challenged the offender, who apologised and ran off.

The offender is described as being of southern European appearance, in his late 20s, 5 ft 8 in tall, of medium build with short dark, gelled hair and a scar or dent on the side of his nose.

He wore a dark blue tracksuit top and light blue jeans and was holding a carrier bag and a black jacket. He spoke with a southern European accent.

Police want to speak to the man who intervened, and a second man who walked past who may both hold vital clues.

Call Sgt Darren Lamboll at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 if you can help.

In Memoriam

CARTER Betty

August 18th, 2005.

Always in our hearts,
Forever in our thoughts.

We all love and miss you very much

To my dearest dad Dennis THOMPSON

I know you haven't gone and that you are only next door in the other room. I miss you terribly and always will. It broke my heart when you left that day but then I looked into the sky and saw the shiniest star shining down at me and I knew that it was you beaming and saying 'go on darling you can do it.' The memories I will treasure and remember the good times we all had together. Just remember you are like a sunflower always smiling and always caring. You are a loving husband, dad and granddad who is sorely missed and will be loved always now and forever more. You are always in my heart.

Cherished memories of my darling husband Dennis THOMPSON

August 14th, 2007.

If tears could build a stairway, And memories were a lane, I would walk up to Heaven, To bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say goodbye, You were gone before I knew it, And only God knows why. My heart still aches in sadness, And secret tears still flow, What it meant to lose you, No-one will ever know.

Love you always,
Lynn

To GRANDAD

I love and miss you.
You are in my head and heart.

Activities on offer by sending a text

TEXT MAD youngsters will be able to use their phones this summer to get a roaming youth facility to visit their village.

The project, called Wos Up, is being run from a 4x4 pick-up truck packed with sports equipment and laptops with free internet access.

Activities will include basketball, football, rounders, tennis and arts workshops and information will also be available on drugs, alcohol and sexual health.

It will be touring the villages of St Edmundsbury this summer in response to demand from texts from young people in rural areas to decide where it goes.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

The scheme is funded by St Edmundsbury Borough Council and will be run by professional youth workers in partnership with a local youth agency SCA (Supporting Contemporary Adolescence).

Leaflets have been distributed around local villages to promote the project and circulate the number that people can text to register their mobile number and village.

Then when the truck is going to be in their area, they will receive a text to let them know where and when. Thirty sessions have been commissioned and their location will be in response to demand from the young people themselves.

Sara Mildmay-White, cabinet member responsible for community projects, said: "This is a new way of working for St Edmundsbury and we look forward to enabling young people in rural areas to enjoy activities not normally available in our villages."

"The texting idea means we can go wherever people want us and as the whole scheme is mobile we can be totally flexible to respond to demand."

To register for information, text SCENE WOSUP to 88800.

Family fun at charity event

BARMAID Emma Blackmore will be stepping to the other side of the bar and swapping pint glasses for a microphone for a charity event.

Emma works at the Haver Arms in Haverhill and as part of their annual charity fundraising initiative, Harvester Restaurants have chosen the worthwhile Make a Wish charity, which grants wishes to children and young people aged three to 17 fighting life threatening illnesses.

The Haver Arms will be supporting the campaign with an action-packed charity afternoon on Sunday, offering fun and games for all the family, a barbecue from 1pm, a raffle and live music from 2-7pm.

Two local bands, Hoarse with No Name and Cover Girls, have agreed to perform free of charge throughout the afternoon and one of the bands has a singer who regular visitors to the Harvester will recognise as a familiar face from behind the bar – Emma Blackmore.

Emma, a member of Haverhill's popular Centre Stage Company, appeared last year in the chorus of My Fair Lady and more recently in the Last Night of the Proms staged at the Old Independent Church. However, Emma's regular band – Cover Girls – is more rock and pop than musicals and prom. Manager of the Haver Arms, Lyndsey Bucknell has been thrilled by the assistance she has received from staff, local businesses and volunteers. Lyndsey said: "When I informed the team here at Haverhill, everyone was really keen to get involved and support this event. However, the icing on the cake was Emma telling me that not only was she able to arrange for two local bands to perform free but that she was also the lead singer in one of them! I had no idea she had a voice to match her ability to pull pints."

"I have also been overwhelmed by the generosity of Haverhill's business community. "The raffle prizes themselves take some beating, from an iPod nano through to meals and a mini-break." Organisers, while hoping that the weather holds for the weekend, point out that the event will be under cover. For more information, ring Lyndsey Bucknell on (01440) 702208.

Ex-soldier's appeal for back-up

A FORMER soldier is calling for local re-inforcements to help him support the troops in Afghanistan by sending goodwill parcels. Pensioner Harry Phillips and his wife Beryl, both in their 70s, have sent more than 50 shoe boxes full of items to cheer up the troops and continue to collect goods to send more. Recently they received a letter from the man in charge of 3 Squadron RAF Regiment, Warrant Officer Gary Eden thanking them for their efforts.

He explained that the squadron was now more than halfway through its tour of duty but continued to suffer many near-misses and soldiers having to return to the UK for medical treatment.

And WO Eden said the pair's efforts had been vital when morale was at its lowest ebb on April 13, after the squadron lost two colleagues. He wrote: "You had already started to send us parcels and what a massive achievement you and the rest of the people of Haverhill had achieved."

"The support you gave us cannot be under estimated as it did help in the speedy recovery and maintenance of our morale. Your support has been very well received by all of us."

WO Eden personally thanked the Phillips as well as Peter Condon and Mr and Mrs Sees "to name just a few".

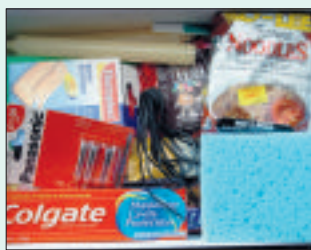

He added: "Chris Hanlow sent us a box of homemade cards from two elderly ladies.

"I sent one of those cards to a little princess called Lauren Nealis, she is only six and the great grand-daughter of Beryl and Harry, who was kind enough to send the troops some sweets.

"We do have a young airman from Haverhill serving on the squadron, Ben Fidler who lives in Beaufort Court. Knowing that there are people like you who are supporting us is just fantastic and the troops really do appreciate it."

BOXING CLEVER... Harry Phillips and wife Beryl who are collecting items to send to troops in Afghanistan.

Surgery no-shows reach 100 a month

UP TO 100 patients a month are failing to turn up for doctors' appointments in every average sized GP surgery in Suffolk.

The county's Local Medical Committee has expressed concern about the number of patients missing booked appointments.

Information from practices around the county shows that up to 100 patients in an average-sized practice fail to attend appointments to see their GP each month, and patients are also missing meetings with nurse practitioners, practice nurses and health care assistants.

Bill Robinson, chief executive of the committee, said: "The Healthcare Commission has recently reported national figures relating to speed of access by patients to their GP and, whereas Suffolk came out very well in these figures, they could be better if some patients did not waste their GP's time by simply not turning up for their appointment which could have been offered to someone else."

"This problem is extremely wasteful of NHS resources and if patients who were not able to attend their appointments would only just ring to let their practice know, then the appointment could be offered to another patient."

Kedington

At their Antiques Roadshow evening, the Women's Institute were pleased to welcome back Barrie Stevenson at the Legion Hall.

Barrie always has such interesting stories to tell about the items shown, and his memory is phenomenal. He said that he had done more than 500 such evenings, and remembered most of the items which had been shown to him. He never enters into the world of valuation, but his knowledge of so many different fields is very great, and he has the knack of pleasing the owner by showing interest in what is being shown.

Members also spent some time discussing arrangements for the group meeting to be held in Kedington in September.

■ An enjoyable evening of "Poems, Prose and Stories" or "Verse and Vittles" was held in the village church of St Peter and St Paul on Friday evening, attended by some 25 parishioners. Similar events had previously taken place in parishioner homes, but with the increase in numbers, it was agreed to meet in a large venue, thus a change to the Church Chancel. The event was organised by churchwardens Mary Upton and Celia Bradnam, and practically all contributed with a variety of poems and readings, prior and after an interval break for refreshments.

The event was free to enter, but donations for church funds amounted to £60.50.

■ A children's Fun Day organised by the combined churches of St Peter and St Paul's and Church in the Field, will be held at the Community Centre on Thursday, August 21, at 10am until 3pm, for children in the age range of five to twelve years.

Entry is £2.50 per child or £4 for two or more children of the same family.

Bring a packed lunch. Adult helpers would be welcome.

■ Diary: Sunday – Stourhead Benefice Service, Little Bradley Church, 10am.

Monday – RBL Bingo, Legion Hall, 8pm.

Charity golfer wins TV bonus prize

GOLFER Trevor Broomfield got an extra bonus from taking part in a charity golf tournament when he won himself a television.

Organisers said a huge thank you to Chapman and Sons, of Haverhill, who donate a large flat screen television each year to the Charity Classic Golf Day. This year's event was

In aid of the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, together with East Anglia's Children's Hospice and Rotary charities.

It is hoped to have raised nearly £12,000.

Mr Briggs said: "It is this kind of local support that makes the event such a success."

■ EXTRA WIN ... Trevor Broomfield, centre, collects the television from Haverhill Golf Club captain Terry Bishop, left, and club president, Chris Briggs. CP

Clean up bid at bus station

HAVERHILL'S bus station will be cleaned up following complaints about its filthy state.

The area is due for a major refurbishment next spring with a £200,000 investment from Suffolk County Council to pay for new shelters, new paving and seats and a re-organisation of how the bus station operates.

In the meantime, St Edmundsbury Borough Council has agreed to step in with some interim measures in response to concerns from the town council and members of the public about its cleanliness.

The borough council's Haverhill Area Working Party has arranged for the bus station to be given an intensive summer clean up.

The waste team will be cleaning up the shelters and paving area and removing graffiti and stickers to make the site look a little more clean and tidy.

They will also be looking at how to make the shelters weather-tight for winter.

Cllr Karen Richardson, vice chairman of the working party, said: "We are looking forward to the big revamp taking place next year but felt we needed to take some action now to make the facility more pleasant for local people and to make sure the shelters will withstand the winter."

"Hopefully this planned clean up will do the trick and tide us over until the major works next spring."

Triathlon man aims for £3k

By Jo Deeks

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

BUSINESSMAN Paul Donno overcame a traumatic start to complete the gruelling London Triathlon and raise more than £1,700 for a children's charity.

Mr Donno, a former chairman of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce and Round Table member, joined 60 other competitors in his section in the murky waters of Victoria Dock to await the signal to start the first stage of his first triathlon.

As the starter horn sounded at 3pm his goggles broke then, 500 metres into his 750 metre swim, he experienced cramp in his left calf.

He said: "As I was trying to massage the pain from my calf whilst still swimming I managed to dislodge my timing chip which was strapped to my ankle. I ended up swimming the remaining 250 metres with one arm as my other was clutching my timing chip.

"My actual swim time was okay at 19 minutes 25 seconds, but I lost over six minutes in the transition stage trying to alleviate the cramp."

Although the wind and rain did not make for ideal conditions Mr Donno managed the 20km bike ride in a respectable 45 minutes 17 seconds but again he lost vital time in the transition stage spending another five minutes trying to sort out his cramp.

The final part of the event was a 5km run which he managed in 31 minutes 10 seconds, taking his overall time to one hour 47 minutes and 21 seconds and his final position to 1161 out of 13,000.

He said: "Crossing the finish line was a great feeling. It made it all worthwhile. I would like to thank everyone who has helped me and all those people who have sponsored me."

Mr Donno has already signed up to do it all over again in 2009. He has raised £1,700 for Round Table's Children's Wish. Having achieved his goal of completing the event in under two hours, he is now keen to meet his fundraising target of £3,000.

You can still sponsor him to achieve his fundraising target by donating online at www.justgiving.com/pauldonno1 or by calling Sandra Bentley on (01787) 281688.

Students show talent at end of year showcase

BUDDING artists in Haverhill have an exhibition of their work on show at the town's arts centre.

Work by students at West Suffolk College's art classes in Haverhill is on display throughout August. Barbara Adshead, manager of the college's Haverhill Learning Shop, said: "The 50 pictures on display have all been contributed by people who have completed one of the adult education art classes held in Haverhill during this last academic year.

"We would like to thank the Haverhill art group, whose members have given us lots of help and advice with the classes and also with this exhibition. As well as art works in traditional media, there are two digital photos in the exhibition by a new tutor, Albert Robb."

Students of all ages joined the classes, from people in their 20s to those in their 80s. The centre is currently offering new classes, including general art for beginners, watercolours for beginners and art for improvers, with digital photography classes starting in September.

Find out what's on offer and book a place at the new Learning Shop in Haverhill High Street, call (01440) 712177 or email haverhill@wsc.ac.uk

Big screen battles and flower show favourites

TONY Stace will be the guest player at the Haverhill Keyboard Club's concert at Haverhill Arts Centre next week.

Tony started playing the organ when he was aged just nine and has developed a unique style, engineering his own registrations and rhythms. He is a firm favourite at organ societies and clubs across the country, playing a blend of music including many popular light classics.

The concert is on next Tuesday at 7.30pm.

■ Don't worry if you missed The Incredible Hulk (12A) last week – there are further screenings on Monday at 11am and 2.30pm, and Wednesday at 11am and 7.45pm. Just when Bruce Banner comes close to a cure for his unique condition, all is lost when a new creature, The Abomination, emerges. As the two creatures clash in a massive, no-holds-barred fight to the finish, New York becomes the ultimate battle zone.

■ The much-awaited The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian (PG) comes to Haverhill from next Thursday at various times. Dashing Prince Caspian sets out to secure his rightful place on the throne and defeat the tyrannical king who has taken over Narnia. One year has passed since the events of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, and now the kings and queens of Narnia return to make a shocking discovery. Check the cinema listings on Page 19 for screening dates and times.

■ There are a record number of exhibitors taking part in this year's Floral Art competition, hosted by Haverhill and District Flower Club in association with Haverhill in Bloom and sponsored by Haverhill Town Council.

Taking place on Saturday and Sunday at the arts centre, the competition has six classes: Over the Rainbow, Nursery Rhymes, The Velvet Touch, Coastal Waters, Burnished With Gold and At Your Leisure.

There will be 60 exhibits in the show and you can come along and view them on Saturday from 1-5pm and Sunday from 10am-4pm.

RELIEF: Government plans to introduce a stamp duty holiday will help boost the housing market.

Mixed reactions to stamp duty holiday move

SPECULATION that the Government is considering temporarily scrapping stamp duty tax is causing a stir amongst estate agents and homeowners nationwide.

The news announced on August 5 is being viewed in general as a positive step towards boosting market activity.

Russell Jervis, managing director of haart estate agents, commented: "The government needs to take urgent action to prevent a housing market crash, and introducing a 'stamp duty holiday' would provide the much needed relief for homebuyers and help boost market activity."

David Bexon, managing director of SmartNewHomes.com agrees.

"If it is true, scrapping stamp duty over the short term is likely to entice buyers back to the market, keen to save what could be £1,000s off the value of their next purchase."

Yet there are further measures which may need to be put into practice to aid a market recovery, besides a suspension of stamp duty tax.

David continued: "While this is likely to increase activity in the market, we need to see this action coupled with the freeing up of mortgage finance if it is to prove a real success."

Other concerns are for the sector of homebuyers that this will affect.

"The news" said Charles Wasdell, director of Moveme.com, "will be welcomed by homebuyers across the country."

"However, by removing stamp duty on all housing transactions, the Treasury would be opening the door for investors and second home owners to take advantage of the potential savings on offer, rather than just assisting those most in need. A more sensible approach would be to limit this stamp duty holiday to those buyers purchasing a primary residence.

"This would ensure that those who really need the help benefit, while preventing other from taking advantage of the situation."

The lack of a clear decision on the proposed stamp duty holiday is also being accused of damaging the market.

Still, it remains acknowledged as a good sign from the Government that it is looking to take practical steps to up customer confidence.

Bentley raises the roof

BY all received wisdom, a convertible car should be a thing of beauty.

Most are not. Most droptops are rather unsuccessful hack jobs of existing saloons or coupes. Here's one that isn't. It's a luxury convertible that has a certain old school raffishness about it, but which is built on relentlessly high-tech underpinnings. The Bentley Continental GTC is, for the time being at least, about as good as convertibles get.

It will accelerate from a standing start to 60mph in an eyeball-popping 4.8 seconds and the 552bhp twin-turbocharged 6.0-litre W12 engine will keep accelerating right up to a heady 195mph.

The full 479 lb.ft slug of torque is available from as little as 1,600rpm, which means the Continental GTC is as effortless to drive as its coupe sibling. If you're concerned about fuel economy and emissions, buy something else. No excuses required here. With the security of four-wheel drive and a whole panoply of safety features, the Continental GTC is as reassuring as it is rapid.

It's also extremely beautiful. I must admit to not being wholly sold on the styling of either the Continental GT coupe or the Flying Spur saloon, but the droptop is a breathtaking piece of design. With a low turret look effected by a small glasshouse, the GTC looks poised and cohesive. Drop the roof and it looks even better.

The hood itself deserves a mention. Although it's not the quickest folding mechanism around, at 25 seconds from roof up to roof down, it's a beautiful piece of craftsmanship. Even during the operation of the roof, not one mechanical part is visible, and the roof can be operated even after pulling away at speeds of up to 20mph.

The interior is demonstrably Bentley with acres of leather and wood veneers. The Continental GTC is a proper four-seater, the backs of the front seats having been scooped out to offer additional knee room for rear passengers.

Certain Bentley trademarks endure – the bullseye chromed ventilation outlets and the organ stop controls, but don't get the impression that this interior is a quaint retro pastiche. A touch screen LCD display on the centre console controls the air conditioning, satellite navigation, computer information and entertainment systems, while many of the minor controls can be operated without removing hands from the steering wheel. It's this blend of old and new that's particularly fascinating.

The Continental GTC is the most attractive convertible Bentley in living memory and will doubtless sell strongly in key markets such as the US, the Far East and Europe.

Volkswagon unveils its sixth generation Golf

FIVE generations, 34 years and over 26 million vehicles after the original first went on sale, the sixth generation of the Golf has been unveiled.

With the current, fifth generation Golf being far more costly and difficult to make than VW would want, the new Golf has come around in double quick time and it continues the evolution of one of the best selling models ever.

The new Golf will feature significant changes to its styling, safety features, build quality and engines over the previous model.

With looks strongly linked to the soon to launch Scirocco, the Golf will also feature a number of clean and efficient engines.

A new 2.0 litre TDI diesel unit will first be seen in the Golf with an emissions rating of 119g/km of CO2 and a combined mpg figure of 62.7 from the 108bhp powerplant.

This will be joined by a number of TDI engines with power outputs of 89, 138 and 168bhp and a host of efficient TSI petrol engines producing 79, 101, 120 or 159bhp. Expect probable forthcoming GTI and R editions to have more powerful units.

■ VOLKSWAGEN GOLF MKVI... with a number of technical improvements.

One very significant piece of technology that will be an option on the Golf is Volkswagen's adaptive chassis technology, currently available on the Passat CC and the Scirocco. Drivers can choose normal, comfort or sport modes to stiffen or soften the suspension and change the steering and accelerator responses. Externally the new model features a wider grille similar to the Scirocco's while inside, white backlit dials sit in recessed, individual cowls behind a three-spoke steering wheel. Volkswagen chairman, Prof Dr Martin Winterkorn, said: "This sixth generation of Golf cars will completely redefine the quality and comfort level of its class over broad categories, offering more customer value than ever before."

Prices and specifications for the new Golf will be announced closer to launch towards the end of the year.

The new Golf goes on sale in the UK in January.

A NEW study reveals half of UK motorists admit to loving their car and a third take this even further by giving it a name, with Betsy coming out on top as the most popular name, followed by Baby and Betty.

Women's car insurance specialist, Diamond asked 1,000 motorists about their feelings towards their car and the results showed 50 per cent say they love their car and 33 per cent have given it a name.

However, it's women who are more likely to christen their cars, with 38 per cent of them admitting their car has a name compared with 26 per cent of men.

But just what are people calling their cars?

Women's names are the most common with the top five most popular consisting purely of them so it looks like a lot of people see their cars as being female.

The top five most popular names are Betsy, Baby, Betty, Ruby and Susie.

James continued: "Although the top five was dominated by women's names there were also some very strange names in our list including Beastie, Einstein, Fizzy Pop, Henry McHaggis, Kim Jong-il, Sadie Frost (pictured) and Mr Aubergine McRalph"

Drive yourself on to some exciting offers.

Consumer Advice - A Pet is a Lifetime Commitment

Never Buy On Impulse

Dogs and Cats can live 15-20 years. Rabbits can live 7-10 years or longer.
Will you be there for them - through marriage, divorce, having babies, moving house and holidays away?

Have you considered:

- Do you have the time to give your pet the exercise, mental stimulation, training and attention it needs?
- Dogs and cats cost around £500-£1000 a year to keep.
- If this is a pet for the children, who will look after the animal when the children leave home?

Note: Under the Animal Welfare Act 2006 a pet owner has a legal duty to ensure the welfare of his animal(s).

If you decide to buy a pet we would always recommend the following:

- Please consider contacting your local animal rescue/rehoming centre. There are thousands of healthy, loving animals all over the UK who need a home.
- Research before you buy. Be sure you understand the needs of the pet you are interested in. Check that your lifestyle and environment suit the animal.
- When buying kittens and puppies, insist on seeing the mother with the litter. Check that the facilities are clean and the animals appear alert and healthy. You should be able to handle them freely under supervision. Make sure your chosen pet is old enough to leave its mother.
- Ensure that the animal you are buying is healthy and free from signs of injury or disease. Always ask for a copy of its medical records including vaccination certificate and records of worming and flea treatment.
- Be prepared to wait: the right pet is worth waiting for!

ARCHERY - FOCUS ON OLYMPIC GAMES

Eley's pastime brought him a key Beijing role

TWENTY-one years ago, Barry Eley's days running around a football pitch were coming to an end, so he sought another pastime.

Having considered the options available, he decided to join an archery club close to his then Bishop's Stortford home.

But Eley, now based in Haverhill, never imagined his new sport would lead him to China.

The 55-year-old bowman is Great Britain's archery performance director, having been the Olympic team manager for Sydney and Athens. "I did 28 years in the Fire Brigade in London and was getting too old to run around a football pitch, and I looked for something else," he said.

"In 1987, I joined an archery club but when my wife, daughter and son joined me in 1988 they constantly beat me right from the start."

Wife Jan and daughter Lorna were so talented their development reached a level that exceeded the capabilities of their current coach - so up stepped Eley.

"The coach we were using said things had progressed further than him and, as there was a lack of coaches, I took over the role," he said.

"I knew straight away that I wasn't good enough to be an international archer, but I could be a coach to my wife and daughter."

"It wasn't until the end of 1992 that we realised Jan had achieved the selection scores needed for the national team. We looked at my daughter's and it was the same."

■ MARK TAYLOR
Olympics Correspondent

"So it turned into something that was socially enjoyable to something that was enjoyable, but had a meaning."

And that led to him taking on administration for the national squads in 1995, before being asked to do the team manager's role for squads going abroad in 1998.

His role as GB performance director is to take care of logistics for archers competing at home and abroad, and the demands have increased with the development of the sport.

"In 1988, teams were paying for themselves, and we were doing a minimum of three events a year," said Eley.

"Even in Athens in 2004, we were working on a grant of £80,000 a year from UK Sport, then we got the Lottery funding and it went from £80,000 to £3.4million over four years."

Great Britain has a squad of six archers in Beijing, and Eley said: "Internationally, we're doing extremely well - last year both the men's and ladies' teams won silver in the world championship."

And this time, Eley has been able to take a step back and enjoy the Games.

He said: "I do all the work before they get out there and then everyone else takes over."

GOLF

Hudson and Spittle take the honours

A BUSY weekend of competitions at Haverhill GC was devoted to the R Woolmer Greens Trophy and the R Brown Cup - one of the club's 11 major events. There was a rash of low scoring in the Greens Trophy, which was led by Charlie Hudson (63), who had Bob Spittle and Daniel Edwards some shots in arrears.

Leading scores: C Hudson 63, A Spittle, D Edwards 66, C Hoy, W Penman, G Scott 67, S Rex, D Thomas, D Bates, G Ashcroft, T Lyons, C Ryan, C Bradnam, S King 68, M Calmet, M Stuart, E Kiddle, M Elsworth 69.

■ Dave Pipe took the 36-hole R Brown Cup by three shots from Dean Cornelius, who had Fraser Curl two further adrift in third spot.

Pipe's score of 127 was 13 under par for the handicap event.

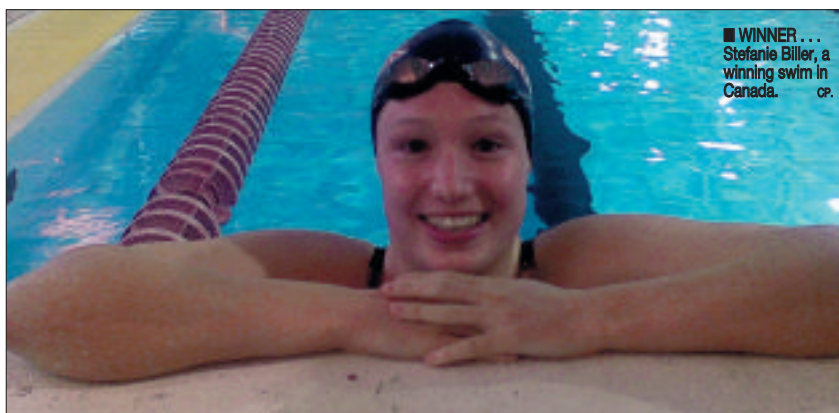

Top scores: D Pipe 127, D Cornelius 130, F Curl, C Hudson 132, R Tavenor, O Cracknell 135, M Grove, H Bavester, C Vince 136, J Davis 137, J Walker, A Fish 138, S King 139, M Macnamara, E Fairhead 141, D Whelan, O Longley 142.

■ Haverhill seniors entertained Stowmarket in a four-ball, better-ball match and ended up the winners by 4½ games to 3½.

■ Oliver Cracknell and Lewis Whiting won Haverhill's junior foursomes with 41 points. Alex Archer and Harvey Bavester were the runners-up with 38.

■ Cracknell hosted his Haverhill Junior Captain's Day at which Robert Rudge (59) was the medal winner from Edward Baker (65) and Chris Vince (67). The top three in the stableford competition were Harvey Bavester (45), Charlie Sigler (44) and Michael Perrett (40).

SWIMMING

■ WINNER . . . Stefanie Biller, a winning swim in Canada.

Victory moves Biller up in the world standings

STEFANIE Biller has moved up to second in the overall World Marathon Swimming Grand Prix Series standings after victory in the latest round in Canada.

The Haverhill-based swimmer stormed home four-and-a-half minutes clear of nearest rival and German team-mate Britta Kamrau over the 34km course at Lac Magog, with series leader Natalya Pankina, of Russia, trailing 15 minutes behind. With one event left in October, Biller, who races for West Suffolk, cannot catch Pankina but is almost assured of runners-up spot.

Coach Alan Bircher was delighted with the performance of Biller after struggling for form leading up to the race. He said: "The week before Steffi had finished third in a race that lasted nearly nine hours with four-foot tidal waves."

"I didn't think she looked too good after it even though she finished second in a two-and-a-half kilometre sprint race a couple of days before, but she got in and looked miles better."

"She and Britta, who has several world titles, stuck with the men for a long way and with two-and-a-half hours to go, Steffi just pulled away." Meanwhile, Haverhill-based Bircher, who quit open water swimming after missing out on qualification for the Olympics, faces a last hurrah in the inaugural Great North Swim at Lake Windermere next month. The mile-long charity race will also see St Neots' multi-world champion Mark Foster in action. Bircher said: "I'm pretty sure after six months off I can still do a mile, but I see it as my retirement swim just to put a line under my career."

AFTER a successful first season, the newly-formed youth section of Haverhill Rugby Club face starting the new campaign with a lack of new players to make up an under-13 squad. Training has started at the club's Castle Playing Fields headquarters on Wednesday evenings with nearly all of last season's players returning to make up a mostly make up an under-14 squad. The youth section was formed to bridge the gap from the junior section through to the seniors of the club, and to offer boys an opportunity to play in a team environment. Coach Peter Lester said: "We have everything in place, coaches, equipment, fixtures and a supportive club. "Now all we need are lads who wish to play and learn the game of rugby." Any boys, starting school years 8, 9 or 10 in September are invited to the club on Wednesday evenings. For further information, visit the club's website on www.haverhillrfc.co.uk, and go to the youth section page for full contact details.

FOOTBALL: ROVERS' NEW LEAGUE CAMPAIGN GETS UNDER WAY

Billings left with much to ponder

NEW manager Larry Billings was given a tough baptism of fire as his Haverhill Rovers side were comprehensively beaten in both their opening Ridgeons League, Premier Division fixtures.

They went down 4-1 at Needham Market on Saturday and then suffered the same fate when Mildenhall visited Hamlet Croft on Tuesday night.

Against Needham, Marc Abbott's 18th-minute effort counted for nothing as Rovers slumped against a home side that were runners-up in the league last season.

Rovers missed several early chances, with Paul Jenkin shooting wide of the upright after breaking the offside trap, and Craig Cutts having an effort tipped over the bar.

But Billings' charges broke the deadlock when Abbott's strike from the edge of the penalty area took a wicked deflection and flew past the deceived goalkeeper.

And although Rovers found themselves 2-1 down at half-time, they were given hope when Needham striker Tom Smith was sent off.

However, Needham – who lost their championship showdown against Soham on the last day of last season – netted for a third time after 59 minutes.

Abbott went close at the death, but Haverhill conceded a fourth in stoppage time from the penalty spot, following a foul by substitute Jim Hollingsworth.

There was no breathing space when free-scoring Mildenhall visited and brought their goal tally for their two opening matches of the season to a formidable 12.

The visitors, who beat Whitton 8-2 on Saturday, hit the target on seven minutes when Stephen Spriggs squared for John Sands to convert.

Rovers equalised eight minutes later through a Cutts' lob, but Mildenhall went back in front on 20 minutes when Owen Paynter latched on to a loose ball to score.

Mildenhall opened up a 3-1 lead nine minutes after the break thanks to Michael Harvey, and Sands returned the favour for Spriggs, who netted Mildenhall's fourth on 63 minutes.

Billings now has the task of picking his side up for when they take their first steps along the Road to Wembley with a visit from March Town United to Hamlet Croft in the extra preliminary round of the FA Cup on Saturday.
